COMMON SENSE

Leads most intelligent people to use only medicines of known composition. Therefore it is that Dr. Pierce's medicines, the makers of which print every ingredient entering into them upon the bottle wrapper and attest its correctness under oath, are daily growing in favor. The composition of Dr. Pierce's medicines is open to everybody. Dr. Pierce is a dealer in having the searchlight of investigation turned fully upon his formula, being confident that the better the composition of these medicines is known the more will their great curative merits be recognized. Being wholly made of the active medicinal principles extracted from native forest roots, by exact processes original with Dr. Pierce, and without the use of a drop of alcohol, triple-refined and chemically pure glycerine being used instead in extracting and preserving the curative virtues residing in the roots employed, these medicines are entirely free from the objection of doing harm by creating an appetite for either alcoholic beverages or habit-forming drugs. Examine the formula on their bottle wrapper—the same as sworn to by Dr. Pierce, and you will find that his "Golden Medical Discovery," the great blood-purifier, stomach tonic and bowel regulator—the medicine which, while not recommended to cure consumption in its advanced stages (no medicine will do that yet does cure all those catarrhal conditions of head and throat, weak stomach, torpid liver and bronchial troubles, weak lungs and hang-on-coughs, which, if neglected or badly treated lead up to and finally terminate in consumption. Take the "Golden Medical Discovery" in time and it is not likely to disappoint you if only you give it a thorough and fair trial. Don't expect miracles. It won't do supernatural things. You must exercise your patience and persevere in its use for a reasonable length of time to get its full benefits. The ingredients of which Dr. Pierce's medicines are composed have the unqualified endorsement of scores of medical leaders—better than any amount of lay, or non-professional, testimonials. They are not given away to be experimented with but are sold by all dealers in medicine at reasonable prices.

LITTLE GIRL TORTURED.

As a result of a remarkable story related by four-year-old Irene Kegel, of New York, the police are searching for an insane merchant, who will be charged with having chloroformed the child and branded her back with red-hot irons.

The outrage was perpetrated more than two weeks ago and a physician who attended Irene said the girl had been branded with a sharp-pointed iron. The word "ice," written backward, in script, is plainly visible between her shoulders, while just below are figures which the police discerned as "4" and "7."

According to the child, she was passing through Alexander avenue, when the man, an ice dealer, ran out and took her to the basement, where a bright fire was burning. He then placed a handkerchief over her mouth with "some thing wet" on it, as the girl related, and that was the last she knew until she awakened, several hours later, suffering severe pains. The man, she said, then took her to the streets and warned her that if she told anyone he would burn her up.

For a long time Irene, half delirious, refused to permit the physician to examine her, declaring that the man would either kill her or throw her into the fire. The father of the child, who is an iron-worker and resided in the neighborhood, where he has lived for several years, went out in search of the man, threatening to kill him, but at the suggestion of the police he decided to let them deal with him. Mrs. Kegel recalled that only Tuesday when a man came to the house to deliver some ice the little girl ran into the bedroom and hid her head under a sheet. She wept for a long time afterward, but when first questioned declared she simply had a headache. The doctor said the man was undoubtedly a madman, as the child was not otherwise harmed.

ANCIENT JEWELS FOUND.

It is reported that a collection of jewels, supposed to have belonged to the wife of Seti, the second of the reputed Pharaohs, of Exodus, was recently found in the Valley of the Kings at Thebes, where it was presumably interred with its owner about 1,500 years before Christ.

It is stated that the collection comprises heavy gold bracelets, earrings several inches long, elaborate rings and gold fillets. There were found imbedded in mud, where they were probably thrown by robbers, who in by-gone ages plundered the queen's tomb, which is empty. Engineers heightening the Nile's dam below Philae have discovered a prehistoric cemetery at Shellal. The bodies found were of a pre-dynastic people, whose method of embalming was most primitive. They were of small stature and were apparently poor, as only a few pebble ornaments were found with the bodies. Near by the bodies of forty desecrated Roman soldiers were found in a trench.

WOMEN FREEZE TO DEATH.

Two women were found dead yesterday in the kitchen of a house on west Seventy-first street, New York, of which they were caretakers. They were Mrs. Margaret Meek Bertie, seventy years old, and Mrs. Margaret Kelly, forty years old. There was a little coal in the bin in the cellar, and 17 cents was found in a cupboard. The police think the women sat by a stove, in front of which their bodies were found, to keep warm, and fell asleep before the fire went out, and were frozen to death. They had been dead more than twenty-four hours when found. Each of the women had a heavy wrap about her shoulders. Pawn tickets were found, which showed that in the last 2 months Mrs. Bertie had pawned eighteen articles of dress and jewelry.

CHAMBERLAIN'S COUGH REMEDY A FAVORITE.

"We prefer Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to any other for our children," says Mr. L. J. Woodbury of Twining, Mich. "It has also done the work for us in hard colds and croup, and we take pleasure in recommending it." For sale by W. F. Creighton and Richard Gibson.

HEN LAYS A 25-CENT PIECE.

Jailed for safekeeping until their owner could be located, a dozen hens imprisoned in the county jail at Lynn, Mass., have repaid the jailer for the care and attention bestowed on them by leaving behind an egg, in which, inclosed in the yolk, was a quarter of a dollar. The police found a negro walking down the street Monday night with a dozen-hens in a sack. He was arrested and the hens kept in a cell in the jail until the owner was found next morning. Jailer Garfield says the cell was swept just before the hens were incarcerated. When he went there the next morning an egg was lying in the corner. He accidentally broke it, and was astonished to find the quarter.
